

Comparative Competition Law Conference

Mexico City

September 21, 2015 | 9:00 a.m. – 5:15 p.m.

You are invited to attend the “Comparative Competition Law Conference,” sponsored by CIDE and Alianza por la Competencia. This conference will bring together leading academics and legal practitioners to provide guidance on current developments in competition law in Mexico, the US, EU and Latin America.

Professor Richard Whish, a leading competition law scholar from King’s College London, will provide a keynote speech. The event will include morning panel programs on issues in private enforcements and leading trends as well as issues in global and Mexico-specific competition law. Lunch will be followed by an afternoon roundtable session that offers a practical perspective of competition issues using a trade association case study.
